Learn to Play and Play to Learn Groups

for children from birth to 3 yoa

Reviewed: 10.08.2020

Mater Dei Early Childhood Education educators in our Learn to Play and Play to Learn Groups will:

- ◆ listen, guide and support parents, guardians, family members and advocates to gain a deeper understanding of their children's development and the early stages of play
- ◆ assist parents, guardians, family members and advocates to determine an appropriate Early Childhood Education pathway for their children from birth to 3 yo who are presenting with developmental delay and/or disability

Mater Dei Learn to Play and Play to Learn Groups are facilitated by our team of highly experienced educators.

Mater Dei Early Childhood Education welcomes enquiries from parents, guardians, family members and advocates if they have any concerns or questions regarding their child's development in one or more of the following areas:

- ◆ speech, language and communication
- ◆ self-care skills
- ◆ sleep routine
- ◆ feeding problems
- ◆ behavioural issues
- ◆ attention regulation
- ◆ fine motor development
- ◆ gross motor development
- ◆ play skills
- ◆ social participation
- ◆ sensory regulation
